Holiday

The Lycian Way is a famous long-distance trail. This is a superb taster for anyone with a reasonable fitness level and good pair of boots. Hike through flower-studded meadows and pine forests to abandoned villages and jaw-dropping views, led by an experienced local.

Hotel

This simple hotel is close to the start of the trail. It's a short dolmus (bus) ride down to the main resort and the Blue Lagoon. With 19 rooms it's perfect for a small group holiday. Meals are usually eaten under the awning beside the pool; there's a small bar and the pretty gardens include hammocks.

Your room

Simple but comfortable, with a king-sized bed as standard, and a modern shower room. Hairdryer and pool towels provided; air-con and safe are chargeable.

Itinerary

Monday: We meet flights into Dalaman and transfer you to the hotel (approx. 60 mins).

Tuesday: An easy walk of 3 hours or so from the 'ghost village' of Kayakoy, through pine forest down to the famous Blue Lagoon on the coast.

Wednesday: Free for sun and sights.

Thursday: Starting from Kirme, the guide leads you west, skirting Babadag mountain for magnificent views over the coast, passing through wildflower meadows fragrant with herbs. Today's walk is a more challenging 5 hours' duration.

Friday: Free day – lots of options.

Saturday: Walk from the beautiful Butterfly Valley nature reserve down to the hidden village of Kabak on its tiny, unspoiled cove. A route of about 4 hours.

Sunday: Free for independent walking or sightseeing.

Monday: We return you to the airport for your homeward flight.
