Holiday

The Cape Verde islands are south of the Canaries, yet only 6 hours from Gatwick. We choose Boa Vista for its unbeatable beaches and guaranteed winter sun with January temps up to 23°C. The culture is a happy Afro-Portuguese mix and tourism is relatively new so development is low-key. This All-inclusive holiday is a real treat somewhere truly unique.

Hotel

The Club is laid out as a holiday village by the sea: the Atlantic Ocean rolls in just a few yards away. The pool is open all winter and there is something to do every day and evening.

The public areas make the most of the stunning beach views. There is a buffet and an à la carte restaurant plus choice of bars, plus a small Spa and gym. The size of the site, and sand dunes make the Club unsuitable if you have mobility issues.

Your room

The 270 rooms are set in numerous attractive bungalows behind the beach, each with a little garden and decorated in contemporary style with African accents. There are two beds set side-by-side, satellite TV, free WiFi, hairdryer and shower room. Safe at extra charge.

Where & what

The beach is the focus for a water-sports programme that includes catamaran sailing, windsurfing and snorkelling. Land activities such as aerobics, Pilates, archery, rifle-shooting, boules and Step classes are part of the package too.

A guided tour of the island capital Sal Rei is a good idea early on in your stay; there's a surprising little museum! A 4x4 Jeep tour through the desert is fun. A catamaran cruise is one of the most popular options and this is a great place to try big game fishing!
