Holiday

Lanzarote boasts over 300 days of sunshine across the year and there's a host of optional island excursions to choose from. We first came to the east coast resort of Costa Teguiise because of fabulous Las Cucharas beach just 200m from the front gate. Here you'll find sun, sand, sea and a good choice of bars and restaurants in the picturesque resort centre. Choose this hotel if you like to have a bit of independence thanks to the design of the suites, which includes a kitchenette, and for outstanding value.

Hotel

This 242-suite hotel in the heart of the resort is a long-standing favourite of ours. The low-rise buildings are set around the heated pools in the gardens that give the hotel its name. WiFi in public areas is free, there's a good buffet restaurant and the coffee shop is a popular daytime hangout. Friendly staff lay on day and evening fun and the wellness centre offers a range of optional beauty treatments.

Your room

You have your own one-bedroom suite with living area and furnished balcony (or terrace) plus kitchenette with coffee maker & kettle, fridge and microwave. This means you can make a snack whenever you wish. There's air-con, satellite TV, hairdryer and safe.

Where & what

The island's former capital Teguiise is 15 minutes inland with cobbled streets to explore and a lively Sunday market. Today's beachside resort developed from the 1970s under the design eye of local favourite Cesar Manrique: stroll the seafront promenade behind the resort's several beaches where there's a host of water-sports to try. There are numerous international bars and if you want it, a lively nightlife.

Cesar Manrique's amazing house, now a museum, is a 10-minute taxi ride away. Your Host can arrange optional excursions across the island, boat trips and night-time fun.
