Holiday

This attractive 4-star hotel between the Buckinghamshire towns of Gerrards Cross and Beaconsfield is so easy to reach – well-connected by road, rail and air. The smart public areas – which are beautifully decorated at Christmas – offer plenty of space for chatting and there's an excellent spa. This is a relaxed, laid-back break with no need to pack high heels or black tie, though of course if you want to dress up, no-one will stop you!

a mildly competitive quiz devised by your Host, or you may prefer to use the complimentary WiFi to catch up with family or friends. We lay on a light buffet supper at 7pm and have a relaxed evening together in the bar.

Boxing Day (Sunday)

Those on the 2-night break depart after breakfast, but most guests will surely opt to enjoy this long weekend. Lunch is not included today, so why not get out and explore this corner of the Chilterns? Burnham Beeches Nature Reserve is less than 5 miles away, alternatively, the Iron Age hill fort on the edge of Gerrards Cross makes for a great shorter walk. In nearby Chalfont St Giles, the modest cottage where 17th century poet John Milton lived is another option.

This evening is a 2-course dinner with wine 'on the house'. Afterwards, there are plenty of quiet corners for a chat as well as the smart bar with an impressive range of whiskies.

27 December (Monday)

Depart after a leisurely breakfast, perhaps tempted by 'the full English' as fuel for your onward journey. While rooms need to be vacated by 10am, there's no need to rush off so time for a last swim in the pool or session in the Jacuzzi.

Programme

Christmas Eve (Friday)

The friendly hotel staff welcome you with tea/coffee, and a mince pie or slice of cake. Meet your Host in the bar for pre-dinner introductions, before we move to our private room for a 2-course dinner with wine. Afterwards the hotel's DJ invites everyone on to the dance floor.

Christmas Day (Saturday)

Start today with a leisurely breakfast and perhaps a walk on one of the local footpaths. Do leave room for our 4-course traditional Christmas lunch – turkey with all the trimmings accompanied by wine. The hotel provides alternatives for vegetarians and vegans – just be sure to notify us in advance. After lunch, there's "A stylish and elegant hotel, spa & wellness centre. A great location with plenty of places to explore nearby."
