Holiday

Kenya is a welcoming destination and there is nowhere better for spotting African wildlife, while the east coast beaches are lapped by the turquoise Indian Ocean. This small group tour packs a lot of travelling into a short trip but is hugely rewarding and outstanding value. The holiday is Hosted for us by Kenyan-based reps and wildlife guides eager to show you their amazing country!

Hotels & rooms

All rooms on this trip are offered for sole occupancy and are ensuite. Luxurious tents at Voyager Ziواني camp are fully-furnished with a queen-sized bed, ensuite shower and flush wc.

Ngutuni Lodge accommodation provides rooms with private shower/wc and balcony facing the waterhole. Rooms at the Papillon Lagoon Reef at Diani Beach are in colonial style, with mosquito nets, ceiling fan and air-con plus balcony/patio.

Where & what

Nairobi is 8½ hrs from Heathrow, and Mombasa a further 1 hr flight. Kenya is 2 hrs ahead of the UK, so jetlag is no problem, and this close to the equator, there's little seasonal temperature change. See our website regarding vaccinations and packing advice.

Itinerary

Day 1: fly from Heathrow.

Day 2: arrive in Mombasa for 24 hrs 'down time' at the beach.

Day 3: our first experience of the bush, with a night at a luxury tented camp in a private sanctuary on the edge of Tsavo West National Park. The riverside spot is home to turtles, hippos and crocodiles. Enjoy a late game drive in search of an elusive leopard.

Day 4: a nature walk reveals animal footprints and the best spot for watching hippos. Transfer to our second safari base. Lion, elephant, buffalo, giraffe and antelope are drawn to the waterhole, and there are 2 game drives here.

Days 5, 6, 7: say goodbye to the bush and return to the Papillon Lagoon Reef Hotel for 3 nights at the beach. Built in Swahili-style, with modern facilities including a pool with swim-up bar, restaurant and watersports centre.

Day 8: afternoon flight to Nairobi for a final night in Africa.

Day 9: fly home with lasting memories of friendly hosts, amazing wildlife and beautiful scenery!

"Everything about the trip exceeded my expectations. The trip itself was simply magical."
