Holiday

Rhodes is the largest of the Dodecanese islands, with sophisticated resorts offering stylish bars, good restaurants, quality shops and great nightlife.

This quality long standing favourite and quality service, makes it feel like a luxury home-from-home.

Hotel

About a mile from the centre of the resort, the hotel has a private sand and shingle beach, overlooked by a free-form pool. There's an atmosphere of quiet sophistication at this Italian-style, five-star hotel. We enjoy dinner in the restaurant from its varied menu on 5 nights each week with snacks and drinks available to buy from the poolside 'taverna' daily. The piano bar is a popular evening hangout. The hotel has a hotspot offering free WiFi, a small gym and jacuzzi.

Your room

Each of the 70 rooms is a good size, furnished in international style and with a side-on sea glimpse from the balcony or terrace. The facilities include air-conditioning, TV, room safe, hairdryer, Nespresso coffee machine, bathrobe and slippers plus beach towels. Chargeable items are high-speed WiFi and the mini-bar.

Where & what

Transfer from Rhodes airport is around 45 minutes. There is a huge choice of excursions and activities with something to suit every interest. The Acropolis at Lindos, Kallithea thermal baths, boat trips and 4 x 4 jeep safaris are just some examples. The terraces and different levels leading to the beach may make the hotel difficult for those with mobility issues.
