

Painting Holidays

We have expanded our range of painting holidays in Europe for summer 2027 including one on the coast of Malaga, Spain and new artists in Bodrum, Turkey. These holidays are suitable for all levels of artists with the majority being watercolours, except those led by Roger who leads an oil-based painting holiday in Portugal. If you are a complete beginner please ask about our online course for beginner artists.

What to expect

Join a group of like-minded artists on a teacher-led holiday in Europe where you can develop your painting skills. Everything is arranged by Friendship Travel including your flights and ATOL protection.

Meet the Artists

Our experienced artists and tutors bring a wide range of styles, from watercolour, oils and pastels to mixed media, pen and urban sketching. With supportive, practical teaching, the emphasis is on developing your own style, building confidence and enjoying painting, whether in the studio or out exploring the local area.
